

A new season is about to begin!

September 2019

Welcome! The 2019-20 season promises to be another exciting season for the Northeast Piedmont Chorale (NPC). Whether you are new to NPC, returning after an absence, or a current NPC member, we are happy that you will be singing with us this year.

Our first fall season rehearsal will take place on Monday, September 9, 2019, at 7:00 pm, in the Fellowship Hall of Wake Forest Baptist Church, located at 118 South Avenue in Wake Forest. There is plenty of parking available in front of the entrance to the Fellowship Hall in the new addition of the church. At that time, our director, Cindy Edwards, and accompanist, Kristen Allred will introduce us to the music we will be singing for our annual fall concert season that will take place on December 13, 2019, at Wake Forest Baptist Church, and December 14, 2019, at First Methodist Church in Henderson. The theme this year is “Christmas Classics” which includes several major works and traditional Christmas music. We will also take time to get to know new singers and to review expectations for all NPC members.

This year because of rising expenses, dues will increase from $150 for the year to $160 per year if you pay the entire fee at the beginning of the year. If you choose to pay per semester, dues will increase from $80 to $85 for each semester.

Also, this year, we will be forming three important subcommittees: promotion, logistics, and fundraising. Our members have many skills, talents, and ideas, and we need everyone’s contributions to make the Chorale the best it can be. We will share more about these subcommittees at our first rehearsal.

Now, it’s time to sing!
